

BRUNCH COCKTAILS

16

Lillian Bland (Flying Feminist)

Light and refreshing take on a wine spritzer with lovely notes of elderflower and lavender to portray the floral season of spring.

Margaret Ann Bulkley
(Dr James Barry)

An Irish garden party in a glass. Subtle notes of apples and elderflower to refresh one's palate.

Hanna Sheehy Skeffington

An afternoon tea fit for kings and queens. Vodka based libation with notes of blackberry and hints of grapefruit.

Helena Molony

A fiery and refreshing libation with subtle hints of passionfruit, orange essence with a habanero finish

It's Good To be Alive
(Imelda May)

It Truly good to be alive! subtle note of vanilla and chocolate - a full bodied mixture. A dessert in a glass. Vanilla infused vodka, Creme de Cacao, a touch of fresh OJ.

Ode To My Family (Dolores O' Riordan - The Cranberries)

A cucumber straight forward cocktail with notes of winter melon and rose essence. Very refreshing and light.

Marguerite & The Gambler
(Mary Black)

Bubbly and Passionfruit straight forward. Aromatic libation with bubbles from both wine & cider with a finish to cool one's palate.

Grace O' Malley
(Grainne Mhaol - Pirate Queen)

A tropical feel to this libation. Very rich and heavy with notes of coffee and coconut. The perfect drink for one who loves being on the beach.